Voqal Names New Chief Executive Officer

Longmont, CO, July 15, 2019 –Voqal is proud to announce that it has promoted Adam Miller to serve as the organization’s Chief Executive Officer (CEO). As CEO, Miller will oversee the principal operations and business activities administered at Voqal ensuring they are consistent with Voqal’s strategy and mission.

He will also provide strategic leadership to all areas of the organization by working with the Voqal President and senior leadership to establish and achieve short and long-range business goals, strategies, plans and policies.

“It has been an immense pleasure to work with Adam over the last eighteen years and I look forward to the innovative leadership and vision he will no doubt bring to the table as he takes on this new role,” said John Schwartz, who will continue to serve as Voqal President and Miller’s direct supervisor.

Prior to taking on this role, Miller served as the Chief Operations Officer (COO) for Voqal. Miller has also served as the volunteer coordinator for Special Olympics Texas and as an AmeriCorps VISTA Volunteer in Manor, Texas where he implemented literacy programs.
